

SPORT DEVELOPMENT ASSISTANT

SportAbility is a Provincial disability sport organization who provides access to sport for British Columbians with physical disabilities. Our sports include Boccia, Para Hockey, Powerchair Soccer and CP/Para Soccer. SportAbility is seeking a part-time Sport Development Assistant to support the development and implementation of sports programs, grassroots development and community engagement for all sports. The Sport Development Assistant will work closely with the Sport Development Coordinator and report directly to the Executive Director.

To: Director.
