

F: OCTOBER 3, 1994

A: Division: ACADEMIC DATE

4. Human Osteology

5. Primatology:

Modern studies of non-human primates and implications for human evolution

6. Geological Time and the Fossil Primates

7. Plio-Pleistocene Fossil Hominids - Australopithecus and Early Homo

8. Homo Erectus

Archaic and Modern

9. Homo Sapiens - Neanderthal

Adaptation.

10. Contemporary Human Physical Adaptability and Variation

Q. Method of Instruction

Course content will be conveyed through:

- lectures
- films and slide presentations
- several "in-class labs", using human skeletal elements and casts of hominid fossils.

elements and casts of hominid

R.

Course Evaluation

Follow Douglas College policy

Following:

75%

(25% each)

2 identification quizzes