

OFF AKAUTV 513

11/10-12/1-1/11

Date: January 1987

A. Division: Academic

New course: Social Sciences Department

X

Revision of Information

July 1986

Introduction to Policing

E

3

C

Criminology 120

D

Descriptive Title

Semester Credits

Submitter's course no.

Summary of Revisions:

F. Calendar Description:

total justice system. Specific (Revised) ... development of policing in the western world as a component of the t

1952
in Canada

Sewell, John Police: Urban Policing

wing Headings: O. Course Objectives, P. Course Content, e Evaluation

Complete Form with Entries Under the Follo
Q. Method of Instruction; R. Cours

0. Course Objectives

- 1. To assess the effectiveness of the police as an instrument of social control.
- 2. To appreciate the place of the police in a total justice system.
- 3. To develop in the student an understanding of the value of the police in contemporary society.
- 4. To enable the student to understand the jurisdictions and legal status of the police.
- 5. To ensure that the student develops an understanding of the operational aims of the police.

- 1. To enable the student to understand the value of the police as an instrument of social control.
- 2. To enable the student to appreciate the place of the police in a total justice system.

4 The Police Role