M: Course Objectives / Learning Outcomes

At the end of the course the student will have demonstrated the following skills:

1. The critical examination of historical sources (reading history). These sources include not only survey texts and articles but also short monographs and extended primary sources.

O: Methods of Instruction

An examination of a series of problems in the history of Women in Canada will give the student ample opportunity to practice and improve these skills. (See objectives.)

Class sessions will be divided between lectures and discussions. The discussion sessions will serve as a forum for the exchange of student relations and criticisms and as a testing ground for student hypotheses. The instructor will encourage the student to elaborate, refine and revise his/her ideas. Discussion sessions will also include history research and writing sessions and practice in oral presentations. Participation in class discussions is therefore essential.

P: Textbooks and Materials to be Purchased by Students

Texts will be chosen from the following list:

Q: Means of Assessment

The evaluation of this course will follow Douglas College policies as outlined in the calendar. During the first week of classes the instructor will provide students with typed course outline handout setting out the evaluation scheme of the course. A copy of this handout will be filed with the History discipline Chair. A general guideline for evaluation follows:

Book Review Essay	15%
Research Proposal	10%
Midterm Examination	15%
Class/Seminar Participation	15%
Research Essay	25%
Final Examination	20%
TOTAL	100%
