

NAME AND NUMBER OF COURSE

COURSES FOR WHICH THIS

RELATED COUR

course is a prerequisite for a 200 level

Philosophy course or permission of instructor

READING RESOURCES

Heidegger and Philosophical Thoughts; Harcourt, Brace; Apatow, William S; Religious He

1965

phy of Religion: Prentice-Hall, Toronto, 1978 $ 5.25 Hick, John, Philoso

COURSE OBJECTIVES, CONTENT, METHOD, EVALUATION

3. Faith, Knowledge and Belief (Hick, Chapters 5, 6 and 7)

- (a) Religious knowledge and the problem of knowledge in general
- (b) Natural and revealed theology
- (c) Faith
- (d) The linguistic veto: the problem of language and meaning

Positivism and Ayer's "Critique of Theology" (see A.J. Ayer, Language, Truth and Logic)

(1)

(see New Essays in Philosophical Theology) (ii) Fleck's challenge

(a) The problem of miracles

Chapter 4)

4. Soul, Death and Immortality (Hick,

- (5) Man and death

Meaningfulness (this material will be handed out in class)

5. Religion and the Quest for anti-Christianity

 istic existentialism reconsidered
 Hamilton
 and Church": Malcolm, Boyd and the Berrigans eology's answer

- (B) "God is Dead" theology
 - (i) Kierkegaard's
 - (ii) Sartre's athe
 - (iii) Altizer and H
 - (iv) The "Undegrou
 - (v) Classical the

METHOD

divided between lectures and seminars

1. Class time will be equally