Q. METHOD OF INSTRUCTION

The primary method of instruction will be the lecture, but the course may involve various other methods of instruction such as social learning, role playing, discussion groups, etc.

R. COURSE EVALUATION

The course will be evaluated by a departmental committee of 5-7 faculty members. Grades will be based upon objective multiple choice questions from a text-related test bank. A minimum of 10% of students' grades will be based upon questions requiring written answers at least a paragraph in length. A maximum of 10% of students' grades may be based on attendance and participation. A report requiring elements of APA style will be provided at the beginning of the semester. Methods of evaluation may include laboratory projects, oral presentations, papers, etc. Specific evaluation criteria will be provided by the instructor at the beginning of the semester. One example of an evaluation scheme is as follows:

60%	One written final exam	20%
	Computer simulations	5%
	Attendance and participation	5%
	Research project and APA report	10%
	Four multiple choice tests at 15% each 100%
